THE OTHER LEONARDO

DISCOVERING A SURPRISING LEONARDO, IN COMPANY WITH RICCARDO MAGNANI

Renaissance Lombardy under Ludovico il Moro was populous and industrious, then as now, and the broad backdrop to the daily life of Leonardo da Vinci for about twenty years. Following in Leonardo's footsteps in Lombardy: discovering the secret places and their landscapes, between truth and mystery. The Moor, as he was known, did not require the presence and ingenuity of the great Master only in Milan, but he needed him to travel throughout the Lombardy, to inspect, assist, verify and solve problems of various kinds.
